

Biography

Naleer Ahmed

Finance Manager

Naleer has over 25 years of finance and accounting experience in the South Asia and MiddleEast region.

Naleer is the Group Finance Manager for iib and oversees all finance activities of The Bahamas operations. He has developed extensive expertise in managing financial operations across a diverse range of sectors, including financial services manufacturing, shipping, and trade finance. Naleer's strong analytical skills and deep understanding of financial systems enable him to lead strategic initiatives that drive operational efficiency and profitability. He has a proven track record in financial planning, budgeting, risk management, and regulatory compliance, ensuring that the company's financial activities align with both corporate objectives and industry standards. His diverse experience across these sectors equips him with a broad perspective on market dynamics and a unique ability to navigate complex financial environments.

Naleer holds a bachelor's degree in accounting and finance from Madurai Kamaraj University in India.